Subject: Daniele, Inc. Labels and Brochure

Stu:

I am mailing to you today Daniele, Inc.'s currently-used labels and packaging for its prosciutto products, and Daniele, Inc.'s currently-used descriptive brochure.

It appears to me that all of these materials comply with the Consorzio - Daniele agreement. Please let me know if you agree. Thanks.

Subject: Consorzio v. Daniele

Stu:

I have finally been able to obtain what Daniele, Inc. has informed me are all of the labels and packages it is currently using on prosciutto products. I will send you a FedEx package tomorrow containing all of these labels (in duplicate). You should receive the FedEx package on Wednesday morning.

The labels are as follows:

1. President's Reserve 400 boneless prosciutto.

2. President's prosciutto.

3. President's prosciutto boneless (silver bag).

4. Gran Premio boneless and shankless prosciutto.

5. Gran Premio prosciutto export boneless prosciutto.

6. Deli-Cut-O prosciutto. This label has the forbidden DANIELE-DANIELE logo on the back of the bag, which is now being eliminated.

Stu: each of these labels uses a trademark (identified by the TM symbol), which bears "no resemblance to 'San Daniele' for the sale of prosciutto." Each of these labels presents the trademark in letters which are at least four times as large as the letters in the words Daniele, Inc.

In addition, Daniele, Inc. has been using three labels for what it calls (a) prosciutto panino; (b) prosciutto panino bites; and (c) panino points. These three products are primarily mozzarella cheese products containing prosciutto. I have advised Daniele, Inc. that, to show good faith, because these products contain prosciutto (as opposed to being prosciutto), Daniele, Inc. should promptly change these labels to comply with the requirements of the agreement. Daniele, Inc. has informed me that it is having the changes made. As soon as these labels have been changed, I will send you samples.

Stu: now that I have brought the new Daniele, Inc. personnel up to date on the agreement's requirements, the number of problems should drop to zero. If you learn of any problems, please bring them to my attention immediately, so that I can have them solved. The Daniele, Inc. people are quite sensitive to the need to comply with the agreement, and I believe that the past problems are now history.

Please let me know if you have any questions or comments. Many thanks.

Steve
